Blogger or governing network?

Green:
Formerly reporter for New York Observer, more recently doing PR and communications consulting at http://www.benabe.com/team.html

Cohen:
Sociology prof at Columbia, blog: http://stumblingintojews.com/

Rauhauser:
Based on Googling, appears to be energy activist who writes for Daily Kos and for the local alternative web newspaper in Champaign, IL, about 20 miles from where I am at the moment.

I guess the main thing is to double check to make sure I did not omit anybody distinguished from the list. Can add others later.
